CAWLE

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN POLICE

The 61st ANNUAL IAWP CONFERENCE

Founded in 1915, The IAWP is a global organization for women police officers and women in other criminal justice roles. Our mission is to strengthen, unite and raise the capacity of women police around the world to represent the interests of policewomen internationally.

The IAWP Conference is one of the largest global events focusing on women's accomplishments in law enforcement.

YOUR SPONSORSHIP is vital to a successful conference!

Join our commitment to professional development, training and the advancement of women in law enforcement. More than 700 professional women in law enforcement are expected to attend from all over the world.

The conference will be held in the heart of downtown at the historic Hilton Chicago Hotel

LIST OF EVENTS

Day 1–2: IAWP Board of Directors meeting.

Day 3: Parade of Nations showcasing Delegates from at least 60 countries proudly displaying their dress uniforms and flags. Opening Ceremony welcoming Dignitaries, Delegates, Award Winners, Guests, and other Attendees. Awards Luncheon, with an evening reception highlighting Chicago.

Days 4–7: Guest Speakers addressing relevant topics and Training sessions geared toward professional development, self care, and the art of balancing work and home life. Exhibit Hall displaying the latest products and services for women police officers.

The Final Event will be a Gala Banquet to honor outstanding women in law enforcement throughout the world who have changed the trajectory of policing agencies and the communities they serve; to thank participants.

“It is imperative that we continue to advocate for the diversity and inclusion of women in policing, provide opportunities for advancement and mentorship in all ranks.”

Sergeant Janice Brown, President of CAWLE
