

BALEAF 2020 Memorial Scholarship Recipients

This year's BALEAF Scholarship Program has concluded and we congratulate the recipients! We received 49 applications with 43 of them complete. The applicants this year came from 19 different law enforcement agencies throughout the Bay Area and included 27 female applicants and 16 male applicants.

Our winners, along with the agencies that their relatives work for, and the colleges they plan to attend, are:

Nicholas Fay - Marin County Sheriff's Office, attending Beloit College

Isabella Engler - San Francisco Police Department, attending U.C. Davis

Jenna Nguyen, San Jose Police Department, attending California Baptist University

Owen Walsh, San Francisco Police Department, attending Chapman University

Mitchell Chang, Antioch Police Department, attending the University of Arizona

Haley Kasid, Concord Police Department, attending Solano Community College

Congratulations to one and all from BALEAF. We wish you much luck as you continue your education!
